Why Clothcraft Insured
Clothes Cost No More Than Take-a-Chance Clothes

CLOTHCRAFT Clothes would be high priced if the makers had to use ordinary clothes-making methods.

But the Clothcraft organization through its 66 years' experience in good clothes-making, has developed a system of scientific tailoring that, by simplifying operations and cutting out waste of effort and material, has greatly reduced the cost of making without sacrificing quality.

This improved science of clothes-making makes it possible to use expensive all-wool cloth and produce clothes that in style, fit and service would ordinarily lead you to believe were high priced. Yet Clothcraft Clothes cost you only $10 to $25.

On top of this, the results of Clothcraft Scientific Tailoring are so sure and efficient that the makers absolutely guarantee them to be disappointment-proof—which means that they are insured for all wool, good tailoring, lasting shape, satisfactory wear and service.

Clothcraft Clothes wouldn't be a bad investment.

At $10 to $25 you really can't afford to wait an other day before at least investigating them.

We are ready and waiting for you, and we'll be disappointed if we can't show you our fine line of Clothcraft Clothes for Fall and Winter.

We know you will appreciate them.

A Safe and Sane Investment—4130, The Clothcraft Blue Serge Special, $18.50.

TO THE REPUBLICANS OF ROCKCASTLE:

After careful consideration I have decided to enter the race for Sheriff, subject to the action of the Republican party at the August primary, 1913. I have been a republican all my life, have done all in my power to advance the interests and powers of the party I love so well, and at this time, I come before my fellow republicans asking this recognition. I made the race for jailer four years ago and was defeated. Many of the people of Rockcastle know me, and those I do not know, I hope to meet in person, and as soon as possible. Those who care to know anything of my life I ask you to inquire of my neighbors where I have lived. I elect to promise faithful service, such as an officer should render and I desire to add that if successful in my race Dee Cummins and Jack Abney will be my deputies. Trusting that my claim shall have the careful consideration of every Republican in the county, I beg, to remain

Yours very truly,

CAM MULLINS.

OLD TIMERS OF ROCKCASTLE.

I was reading the MT. VERNON SIGNAL last night. You asked for information in regard to old timers of Rockcastle county from anybody so disposed to give you the desired information. So here goes for what I know in that line. The Rev. David Carson was pastor of Providence Church which is in West end of your county. He was the leader of that flock the year of 1861 and along there that is as far back as I can remember. The church was and is today the Christian or Campbellite or water dog. The Rev. James Azbill preached through and in fact all over that county at that time the same doctrine as Carson. Later on Azbill had a brother, Overton Azbill who followed the same line. Then there was another preacher before, I have seen him but did not hear him preach nor do I know what was his belief but I think he was a hard shell Baptist. He preached at Mt. Pleasant Church, his name was Richard Collier. He was an uncle of the late Rev. S. Collier, of your county. And then there was Martin Owens I heard him preach fifty years ago. I had time I could tell you as much about some of the old timers of that county of 50 years ago as anybody, so no more on that line I want to say something else and that is just this tell all of Democratic friends to all pull together this time and work for J. C. W. B. who is a candidate for U. S. S. from this State.

"CUMBERLAND Gap to the Blue Grass" is the slogan of the mountains. "On to the Cumberland Gap" is echoed to the Blue Grass. A National highway over Boones trail from the historic gap to Crab Orchard a distance of 98 miles to be built at the expense of our national government is a live question in the Eleventh district and will be put up to the various candidates for Senatorship. We the people of the mountains, believe the Blue Grass will stand by us and assist in putting a bill through Congress appropriating a sufficient amount to cover the expense of the construction of said highway. The whole cost, including bridges should not exceed $500,000. This amount compared with the many millions paid by our State into the National treasury, every month in the way of internal revenue taxes is a mere bagatelle. We think the time should not be far off when the old saying "the mountains don't get nothing nowhere" ought to undergo a radical change. A highway of this kind would be of more immediate benefit to large portions of Kentucky, Tennessee and Virginia than all the lock and damming of the various streams could give in years to come. Such a highway would be in existence but a short time until it would be tapped by turnpikes from various counties lying along and adjoining the main thoroughfare.

The SIGNAL wishes to have an Editorial expression from the Courier Journal, The Times, The Herald and Evening Post, Lexington Herald and Leader as well as all other Blue Grass papers. The Eleventh district papers will continue to advocate and work for this proposition until the desired end is accomplished.

CALL the class of Senatorial candidates into books. "Ex-Governor Beckham, if you are given the Senatorial toga will you give your best efforts and aid in putting through Congress a bill appropriating funds to build a National highway from Cumberland Gap to Crab Orchard, a distance of 98 miles, there to connect with Kentucky's fine system of turnpikes? Congressman Stanley ditto, ditto. Yes ditto to all declared and prospective candidates for the Senatorship. The Eleventh district is lookin' at ye' and will continue its penetrating gaze upon you until that August election day

FROM THE GREAT NORTH-WEST.

The following letter to one of our citizens is from S. W. Paris who was a merchant here back in the 80's and had his store where J. Fish and Son now do business and his residence the building now occupied by C. C. Williams.

"It has been many times I have thought of you, 'together with the other Mt. Vernon folks in the last 20 years and wondered what you all were doing and who were still on this side the long journey we all must take. A few days since, I received a card with the name James Maret, with the 'a' in the 'M' just like you wrote it over 20 years ago and it kindled within me a desire, to make an effort to get a long letter from you. Will you take notice to this? for I am hungry for just such a letter, as I am, well aware of the fact, that you can write it if you want to, that would be very interesting to me. Well old friend, there is a good smart span of country between us, but that should not weaken the tie of friendship. I will not undertake to say anything about this country as I am sending you under another cover the New Years Edition of the Oregonian, one of our Portland Papers, and it will tell you about the country, and I want you to look over it carefully and it will give you an idea of Portland and vicinity. We have roses in our house pulled off rose bushes in our yard every day so far. My family are all well but myself, I still have that terrible asthma that I have been running from for so many years. My son, Frank, is married and lives here in Portland, he is very prosperous in business here, and has a beautiful home, and one little girl. Will lives in Dayton, Ohio, and has two little girls, Anna is still with us, but a young man followed her out here from Dayton and I suppose we'll lose her soon, and then it will be a lonesome time for the 'old folks at home'. It has been 4 years last August, since we moved to Portland, but the first year I spent in California leaving my wife and daughter here, I was in San Francisco and Los Angeles most of the time. I came back here the fall of 1909 and have been here ever since. Previous to coming here, I had charge of the State of Louisiana representing the Proctor & Gamble Co., of Cincinnati (of Ivory Soap fame) for 14 years. My family lived in Dayton Ohio. I spend from two to three months home every year. I thought I'd get rid of asthma is the reason I gave up that place to come here. But I didn't. I heard some time since that our good old friend D. N. Williams had passed over the river. I thought of him immediately when Wils n was elected president how he would have enjoyed it. How well I remember in 1884, when Cleveland was elected, he in front of the Joylin hotel got on a box which I had turned over (boxes at the other stores having been burned up and I was trying to save a few, but I rolled them over when it was the last chance) when called upon to speak and all he could say was "Gentlemen and fellow citizens, I am too full for utterance" and melted down like a wet towel, "all in tears" If he made a mistake it was of the head and not the heart. I always considered him one of my best friends.

When the Republicans get as good a man in there as Taft and then throw him over, like they did because he would not join in their rotten politics it is time for them to go. My boys both voted for Wilson, but of course I voted for Taft, but I knew he had no chance. I should have pretty painful doubts in my mind, in regard to this country of ours if they should ever elect Roosevelt again. If Wilson can keep harmony in both houses, in his party we will have a good administration. If you should ever visit the Pacific North-West, remember our latch string hangs outside for all Mt. Vernon friends. Remember me kindly to everybody and especially you and yours.

I am now, and always,
Your friend,
S. W. PARIS.

THE SCOURGE OF HOG CHOLERA

Cost the hog raiser millions of dollars last year and nothing short of vaccination seemed to offer the slightest promise of cure.

Prevention, however, is the logical solution of the question. Dr. Hess (M.D., D.V.S.) has always maintained that by giving Dr. Hess Stock Tonic to tone up and strengthen every organ in the system, to regulate the bowels, liver and kidneys, expel worms; and also thoroughly disinfect the premises, sleeping quarters and runs with Dr. Hess Dip and Disinfectant, would prevent an outbreak of this disease.

Read what one of the big hog raisers in the country says:
"During 1911 our country was visited by one of the worst hog plagues ever known. We fed Dr. Hess Stock Tonic, and only lost two head out of a herd of two hundred and ten."—Alex. Nevius, Modesta, Ill.

Also note what bulletin No. 182 of the Kansas State College says about preventing Hog Cholera

When we recall the conditions which favor the disease and the manner in which its infection takes place, it will be seen that feeding and earing of hog has much to do with the prevention of the Cholera. Premises should be cleaned and disinfected regularly. The hogs themselves should be dipped every few weeks. Maintaining these conditions helps to keep up the vitality of the hog and in this way troubles of all kinds are ward off. To aid digestion and circulation and to prevent worms, the bulletin recommends a formula of Wood Charcoal, Sulphur, Salt, Sodium Bicarbonate, Sodium Sulphate, Sodium Hypophosphite and Black Antlim.

This formula, given in tablespoonful doses would undoubtedly be beneficial but would cost the hog raiser about 10c per pound. Now compare this with the formula for Dr. Hess Stock Tonic which is vastly superior and has stood the test of 20 years.

QUASSIA, Digestive & General Tonic. Expels Worms.
SULPHATE OF IRON, Blood Builder & Expels Worms.
COMMON SALT, Appetizer. Expels Worms.
NITRATE OF POTASH, Acts upon the Kidneys.
PENUGREEK, Tonic and Aromatic.

This preparation is compounded by Dr. Hess, (M.D., D.V.S.) and sold to you on a written guarantee and only costs 3c per month for the average hog. The definition of the ingredients are taken from the United States Dispensatory and noted medical authorities.

Feed your hogs

to prevent disease and expel worms. Sprinkle the runs and sleeping quarters with a solution of one of the foremost coal tar, cresote disinfectants known. Also dip your hogs with this solution when the weather will permit, and you will have no loss from disease.

The annual officers banquet to the ladies given last Monday evening by the newly elected officers of Ashland Lodge No. 640 F. & A. M. was conceded by all to be the nicest one yet. Past Grand Master and the Present Grand Secretary of the Kentucky Grand Lodge Dave Jackson was the guest of honor. Including the members and visiting brothers with their wives and sweethearts, there were ninety eight, besides the sixteen young ladies who acted as waitresses. Past Master J. W. Brown was master of ceremonies and those who responded were Grand Secretary Dave Jackson and Rev. George S. Watson, others who were on the program being unable to be present.

It was indeed a most pleasant evening for all.

W. H. Miller and Roy Beasley are getting entries and making arrangements for a big horse sale in Mt. Vernon on March 6 and 7, 1913. This is something Mt. Vernon has long since needed because of its geographical location being on the border line between the Blue Grass and the mountains. Rockcastle farmers such a sale will be worth much to you and we hope to see the farmers take an active interest. If you have a horse to sell enter him in the sale, the cost is only $2.50 and whether you sell or whether you buy or whether you don't do either this is the starting of an industry that will mean much to the farmers. Progressive, up-to-date farmers take great interest in such sales in other counties and there is no reason why Rockcastle farmers should not. Assist in establishing a home market for your stock. See Mr. Miller or Mr. Beasley when in town and talk the matter over with them, for it certainly is to the interest of all the people that this sale be made a success.

One day last week J. A. Landrum our railroad agent had a letter from his son, Chester, who is spending the winter in Florida. In which he says the thermometer was up in the 80's and children were playing around barefooted. On the same day Mr. Landrum had a letter from E. G. Heuder, a Pennsylvania oil man, writing from Winnipeg, Canada, in which he mentioned the thermometer was standing at 30 degrees below zero. A difference of 110 or more in temperature between the two points.

A man may use a wart on the back of his neck for a collar button; ride on the bank coach of a train to save interest on his money until the conductor comes around; stop his watch at night to save the wear and tear; leave his shirt and tie without a dot or a cross to save ink; pasture his mother's gray to save corn, but a man of that kind is a gentleman and a scholar compared to that other "feller" who will take a newspaper, and when asked to pay for it, puts it back in the post office and has it marked "refused."

Jesse Williams the first Master of Masonic Ashland Lodge No. 162 Mt. Vernon, organized about 1850 is yet living at the age of 93 in Carthage, Illinois. He is yet whole and hearty. Williams, whom they visited here some years back being the latest member to be called to that Lodge higher up.

MULE FOOTED HOGS:—Until within the past three years but few of Rockcastle's citizens had ever seen a mule footed hog—one hoof to the foot, solid like a mules hoof—not cloven as the feet of other hogs; and probably thousands of others in our county never even heard of such an animal. It will be a surprise to many to know there are two or three, probably more, farmers within our county borders who are raising hogs of this breed. It is claimed that they are immune from cholera. A farmer brought into town and sold one of these hogs, dressed, a few days since and when the purchaser was preparing the feet for cooking found what was thought a deformed foot. Upon examination she found three more of the same kind, and was considerably flustered until informed of the fact of the existence of that peculiar breed of hogs.

LANGDON MEMORIAL SCHOOL.

School opened on Wednesday January 8th. with nearly all the old and several new students enrolled. Many of the girls who were delayed by high water have come in during the week and others are coming as soon as possible.

The new students are Julia Thompson, Kate DeBord, Brina Johnson, Tabitha and Sarah Hiatt, Margy Parsons, Dessie Thompson, Lillie Pitman, Ella Mae Coffey, Willie Coffey and Robert Fish. Elizabeth Lemonds who was out of school for awhile before Christmas, has returned. The Rev. Mr. Byers, of Hyden, Kentucky, gave a live talk at chapel on Tuesday a. m. The Rev. Wm. E. McCord, of Cold Spring Harbor, New York, has been at the Dormitory during the past week and a chapel speaker on Friday morning.

While we do not claim to have a Normal course as we have no desire to compete with our normal schools, established and equipped for that work, we are giving to our High School girls who expect to teach and any others who are prepared to take it, a strong review of common school branches, Theory and Practice with special work on Rural School problems, Psychology and story telling, so that they may not only be prepared for examination, but for more efficient teaching and service in the community in which they teach.

We do expect to have a competent music teacher. At this time of the year it is difficult to get one who measures up to our standard for teachers, which accounts for this delay. We are in correspondence with one who is a graduate in both piano and voice and is highly recommended. We sincerely hope the patronage will justify her coming to us. We hope definite announcements can be made by next week.

WHY NOT THE SMALL TOWN?

The above heading caught the attention of the writer, and a careful reading of an article in Literary Digest of December 21st. To those who may see this article and care to know why the above heading had the effect referred to, we ask that the article in question be read with the same interest this writer took in reading it. It deals with a phase of life in the "small town" as well as the large city all too prevalent, about which the public cares but little if it knows. It deals too with a phase a condition (?) shall we say which is not heard in general conversation. It may sometimes be, as discussed, by some noted physician, a lecturer, to "men only". I doubt if a majority of our girls, perhaps married women, know of the condition to which the writer refers. And yet, alas! Some know to their hurt. Alas! "poor Jimmie Brown". The writer has knowledge of some who met the fate of poor Jimmie. Is it true that our girls have knowledge of some of the pitfalls that may await them even in the sacred state of wifehood—motherhood?

It is horrible enough to think of it, the probability of the fate that befell "poor Jimmie" be coming theirs. I know our older boys know, have verbal knowledge, if not experimental knowledge of the subject under consideration, and to those who have knowledge of what is implied in the reference to the death of "poor Jimmie" submit themselves to the danger of the same fate. What shall be said of them even if none but themselves are involved?

What is said of them? Why do we write upon such a theme? Why does not any body? Shall we always hold our peace, for conventional reasons? Do we approve or disapprove of the leprosy of sin, manifested in its most loathsome and degrading forms? Is there no remedy no means of enlightenment, of education along this line, before the awful leap is taken and the victims go hurtling to ignominious death—a protracted living death. Let it be assumed that no individual reference is made in this article, for the writer is not in possession of knowledge that would point to an individual in Mt. Vernon or vicinity but we point to the article in question and beseech father and mother and town authorities that they watch, as those having the care and responsibility of human bodies and souls, remember that "eternal vigilance is the price of human welfare, as well as "Liberty".

A GIRLS WILD MIDNIGHT RIDE.

Th warn people of a fearful forest fire in the Catskills a young girl rode horseback at midnight and saved many lives. Her deed was glorious but lives are often saved by Dr. King's New Discovery in curing lung trouble, coughs and colds, which might have ended in consumption or pneumonia. "It cured me of a dreadful cough and lung disease," writes W. R. Patterson, Wellington, Tex., "after four in our family had died with consumption and I gained 87 pounds." Nothing so sure and safe for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50 and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Chas. C. Davis.

A WOMAN'S WISDOM.

The worried mother wakes up to hear her baby's heavy breathing—a little cough—perhaps the croup or whooping cough. She does not want to send for the doctor when perhaps the trouble does not amount to much. Finally she thinks of that medical book her father gave her, The Common Sense Medical Adviser, by R. V. Pierce, M. D. She says "just the thing to find out what is the matter with the little dear." Two million households in this country own one—and it's to be had for only 31c. In stamps—1,000 pages in splendid cloth binding. A good family adviser in any emergency. It is for either sex. This is what many women write Dr. Pierce—in respect to his "Favorite Prescription," a remedy which has made thousands of melancholy and miserable women cheerful and happy, by curing the painful womanly diseases which undermine a woman's health and strength.

"My desire is to write a few lines to let you know what your valuable medicine has done for me," writes Mrs. MARGARET ZURETT, of 223 S. Benton Street, Baltimore, Md. "Before the croup came to our house I was a very sick woman. I wrote you for advice which was kindly given and after taking the first bottle of 'Favorite Prescription' I began improving so that I hardly knew I was in such a condition. I did my own housework—washing and ironing, cooking, sewing, and the worst of all nurse three children who had whooping cough. I hardly knew of the advent of my illness before—so easy was it. The baby is as fat as a butter-bull. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the best medicine for any woman to take when in this condition. I recommend it to all my friends."

Bad Spells

"I suffered, during girlhood, from womanly weakness," writes Mrs. Mollie Navy, of Walnut, N. C. "At last, I was almost bed-ridden, and had to give up. We had three doctors. All the time, I was getting worse. I had bad spells, that lasted from 7 to 28 days. In one week, after I gave Cardui a trial, I could eat, sleep, and joke, as well as anybody. In 8 weeks, I was well. I had been an invalid for 5 weary years! Cardui relieved me, when everything else failed."

The Love Letters of a Confederate General

WE begin in the November issue a series of real love-letters written over fifty years ago by one of our national heroes to his sweetheart during the period of '61 to '65. This great general will go down to posterity as having accomplished one of the most brilliant feats of arms in the history of the world. He was as great a lover as he was a general, therefore these letters combine authentic history and exquisite romance. They sound a human note that no other work of literature has done in a decade; it is war, it is romance, it is history, it is literature. You simply can't afford to miss this wonderful series—an inside story of the Civil War now published for the first time and containing all the freshness of a contemporary happening. These letters will grip you hard, and hold your interest from first to last. Fill out the coupon and send it now before you forget it.
